TAYLOR LEADS HOCKEY STINGERS

Former Pierrefonds Pirate, Brian Taylor fired three goals and assisted on another Friday night, to lead the Concordia Stingers to a 7-1 win over the Laval Rouge et Or in a Q.U.A.A. league game played at Concordia. Another former Pirate, Rick Donato, scored once and set up another in the rout. League leading scorer, Roman Dziatkowicz, Dave Clement and Brad Hood also scored for the Stingers.

On Sunday evening the Stingers blasted the McGill Redmen 8-2 building up a 5-0 first period lead. Mike Elwood fired two goals for Concordia while Donato had a goal and an assist and Taylor set up two.

The Stingers will meet Laval in the league best of three semi-final beginning on Wednesday, February 24th in Quebec City. The series will shift to Concordia on Friday, February 26th at 7:30 p.m. and Saturday, February 27th 2 p.m. (if necessary).

HOCKEY WOMEN WIN TITLE

The Concordia women's hockey team edged John Abbott 5-4 in their final league game of the season last Friday evening at Ste. Anne de Bellevue. The win clinched the league title for the Stingers. Corinne Corcoran and Kathy Casey each scored twice to lead the Stingers.

BASKETBALL STINGERS HOST MCGILL

The Concordia University men's and women's basketball teams host McGill this Friday evening at the Concordia Athletic Complex, and home court advantage for the playoffs will be on the line. The men can clinch first place and gain a bye into the league finals by beating the Redmen, something they have done twice this season. The women can clinch second spot with a victory over the Martlets, giving them the home court in the league semi-final. Last weekend the men lost 67-63 to Bishop's then beat U.Q.T.R. 90-84. The women were beaten 62-43 by Bishop's, the nations top ranked team, and then bounced back to beat Laval 42-39 the next day.
